

Susie Bunny Hops to the Dentist

Susie bunny woke up, with a hop,
she brushed her teeth,
from bottom to top.

He counted each tooth,
not once but twice,
he cleaned them gently,
to be healthy and nice.

After breakfast,
it was time to see Dr. Brown, a funny beaver dentist, that made her laugh like a clown.

That was it,
he was all done,
Susie smiled,
as bright as the sun.

Her tummy was rumbling, when she sat in the chair, Dr. Brown is always,
gentle with care.

She was ready,
to hop back to her hole.
But first she picked a sticker, from a magical bowl.

Susie opened her mouth,
very, very wide,
her long bunny tongue,
looked just like a slide.
